SECRETARY COLUMN - ILL. JAMES G. FIDLER, 33°

As we enter the month of March we can look back with great satisfaction at the success of the Six Valley Degree Day hosted by the Valley of Canton on January 28, 2023. Our Sovereign Grand Commander, Ill. Peter J. Samiec, 33°, was among more than 400 Scottish Rite Brethren from all over the United States who observed superb ritual work by six Valleys in Ohio while experiencing the camaraderie that Scottish Rite is noted for.

Twenty Master Masons, including nine from the Valley of Canton, began their Scottish Rite journey by observing the 4° video and participating in a live portrayal of the 20°. The luncheon was delicious, the Canton Masonic Temple sparkled, the Officers and Members of the Valley of Canton were gracious and hospitable to all, law enforcement provided admirable security, and Mother Nature cooperated to produce a truly memorable day for all who participated in this biennial tradition.

In March our thoughts turn to Daylight Saving Time (March 12) and the promise of milder weather that the Spring Equinox (March 20) brings. We now look forward to the exciting events planned by the Valley's Officers for the enlightenment and enjoyment of the Valley's Members. The Stated Meeting at 7:30PM on March 9, 2023 will be preceded by a catered Quarterly Buffet Dinner at 6:30PM. The cost of the Dinner is $15 per person and RESERVATIONS ARE A MUST! The Stated Meeting will feature an outstanding program. At the conclusion of the Meeting, the Brethren will have the opportunity to enjoy Taggart's Ice Cream in the Ballroom.

The Spring Reunion on March 30, 31 and April 1, 2023 will honor Ill. R. Wesley Webber, Jr., 33° and will feature a Pirates Murder Mystery Program for the Ladies on the morning of April 1, 2023; a video presentation of the 26° and exceptional live portrayals of the 4°, 16°, 17° and 32°; and a banquet at 1:00PM on Saturday April 1, 2023 at which we will enjoy delicious food and hear remarks from Ill. Bro. Webber, one of the most accomplished and distinguished Masons in the State of Ohio. RESERVATIONS ARE A MUST! As always WE NEED CANDIDATES. So keep those petitions handy Brethren. And remember, for this Reunion only, the Candidates' petition fees will be absorbed by the Valley of Canton.

William H. Hoover Lodge #770 will hold its annual Oyster Lodge on Wednesday, March 29, 2023, check-in at 5:30PM. The Grand Master of Masons in Ohio, MWB Steven M. Grindle, will be in attendance. Details appear elsewhere in this issue of the Chronicle.

Our hardworking Membership Chairman, RWB Daniel J. Schario, has another fun event planned for the Brethren and their families. He has scheduled a Family Fun Day for the evening of June 24, 2023: a baseball game and picnic, followed by fireworks at Rubber Duck Park in Akron. The cost is $35 per family and EARLY RESERVATIONS ARE A MUST!

Brethren, we say it repeatedly because it is true! The key to success for all of our events is active participation by our Members! Please support all of the events the Officers of the Valley of Canton are promoting for your convenience and enjoyment. You'll be glad you did. And so will we..

Let us step back a month or two for a moment and reflect on January 28.

What a day this was,.This is when the Valley of Canton shined as a bright star in the heavens. The Valley hosted the Six Valley Degree Day.

The Cathedral room was filled to the rafters with many Brethren to see the Degree work of the day.

With a lot of behind the scenes work, the Valley was able to bring in 9 new Candidates. The Valleys of Youngstown and Cleveland also added to their membership that day. This brought the total of new Members to 20. These new Members viewed the 4° video and experienced the pleasure of being addressed by the Sovereign Grand Commander, III. Peter J. Samiec,33° , who presented each Candidate a commemorative plate.

15 of these new Candidates were able to be part of the 20th Degree. If you are wondering, this is the first time there were Candidates at a Six Valley Degree Day.

The Degree work started at 9 am and continued to 4pm.

The day was filled with praise of how the Valley of Canton hosted the day.

I wish to thank all who helped that day. For without your help this would have been an impossible task.

In the month of March there will be a dinner before the Stated Meeting. This is a catered affair by Charley Brown. Reservations are a must, at least 1 week before the Stated Meeting. This will allow the caterer a heads up as to the number of meals that need to be prepared.

Next is the Spring Reunion, the dates are as follows: March 30,31st and April 1st. If you are in a Degree cast please contact your Director as soon as possible.

Then on June 24th it is out to the ball park, to watch the Rubber Ducks, for the cost of 35 dollars per family. This price includes the game, a ball park dinner and fireworks. Reservations must be in no later than May 20th. This is not my rule but the Park's.

“ THE WARNING SIGNS OF A STROKE”

By Brother Nathan Hinder

The Shamrock

We wear a shamrock on St. Patrick’s Day because, legend says, St. Patrick used its three leaves to explain the Holy Trinity. [The Trinity is the Father, the Son and the Spirit as three divine persons who are one divine being (God).] The truth of the St. Patrick legend, however, is in question, as there is no direct record that the saint actually used the shamrock as a teaching tool.

Scholarship Program

Abbott, Sovereign Grand Commander from 1921 to 1932, the Scholarship Program provides financial support for continuing education of young men and women from Scottish Rite families and Masonic related youth groups. - A member of DeMolay, Rainbow Girls or Jobs Daughters in the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction who is a high school senior or currently enrolled at an accredited college or university, who has attained a minimum grade point average of 2.75 on a 4.0 scale.

Saturday January 28th, our Valley hosted the Six-Valley Degree Day. I think that everyone in attendance would agree that the event was a great success and was enjoyed by all. For those who spent any time in the lounge, you are no doubt aware that your Canton Children's Dyslexia Center set out a table. We had a great time talking with members of the various valleys about your Center and trading some good advice with those who are active in maintaining their own Center. I am hopeful that we made some good contacts that will help us all to continue to do the good work we do.

Our table served another purpose this weekend as well. WB Brock Ryan approached me earlier in the week about the possibility of a fundraiser for the Center. With the assistance of RWB Daniel Schario, WB Ryan had a number of engraved items made up for sale. The goal was to see if there might be interest in custom engraved insulated cups, glasses, coasters, or other items. I can say without a doubt that there is! We sold a number of items, took orders for more, and traded contact information for potential, future sales. The brethren of every Valley were excited by the possibility of purchasing quality items at a reasonable cost while supporting your charity! With our success, we will be working to formalize a list of items, prices, etc for the Spring Reunion and into the future.

I would also like to mention the individual who does all of this fine engraving work. Mike Polmaski not only provided us with a selection of items for our sale and display, but he also donated a very special piece for a raffle. A large double eagle was engraved on a 12x24 inch piece of roof slate from a 150-year old barn. The piece garnered a lot of attention and helped to raise over $800 for the Center!

Brethren, it is you who are helping to keep our Center going. It is you who are coming up with ideas and plans to raise the money we so desperately need. All of us who work for, or on behalf of, your Center are so grateful for your continued support.

Hurricane Gavel

Stacey Fraser, Assistant Curator, Scottish Rite Masonic Museum & Library

High in the Taurus Mountains of Turkey, there is a grove of Cedars of Lebanon (Cedrus libani). In the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts collection cared for at the Scottish Rite Masonic Museum & Library, there is a gavel made from the wood of one of these trees. The story of this gavel – from seeds to storage – brings together natural science and Masonic ingenuity.

In the early 1900s, Charles Sargent (1841-1927), the first Director of Harvard's Arnold Arboretum, wanted to add examples of Cedrus libani to the collection of trees and shrubs at the site. However, these trees – which are mentioned in the Bible – grew primarily in the warmer climate of Lebanon and did not seem suited for New England weather. With the help of German naturalist Walter Siehe (1859-1928), Sargent was able to locate a forest of Cedars of Lebanon in the Taurus Mountains in Turkey. These trees grew further north and at higher altitudes and the two men thought they might also grow in Massachusetts.

In early 1902, Siehe shipped a number of cedar cones to Sargent and the trees were propagated in the greenhouses at the Arboretum. They started well and were planted on the grounds. By 1930, the Turkish Cedars of Lebanon were growing well and producing their own seed cones. The experiment was a success.

Then came the Hurricane of 1938, one of the most severe storms in New England history. The storm devastated the forests of the Northeast, destroying an estimated two billion trees in New York and New England. In the Arboretum, at least five of the Turkish cedars fell victim to the storm. (Happily, in 2022, eight of the original trees still survive on site.) As for the hurricane-damaged ones, a group of local Masons "grasped the opportunity to perpetuate these trees Masonically," as one of them later said.

William Judd (1888-1946) was a member of Eliot Lodge in Dorchester and a gardener at Arnold Arboretum. During the clean-up after the hurricane, he and Welby McCollum (1887-1952) of West Roxbury Lodge decided to use some of the cedar wood to make a gavel. Given that McCollum worked as a builder, he may have crafted the piece.

After the gavel was completed, it was given to West Roxbury Lodge's Past Master, Alexander McKechnie (1887-1965). He wrote out the story of the gavel on two typewritten pages – kept with the item – as a draft of his planned speech for a January 1940 presentation to West Roxbury Lodge. McKechnie mentioned in a handwritten addendum that he intended to present the gavel to the lodge and thence to the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts if desired. His note is addressed to Joseph Earl Perry (Continued on page 9)

MSA BREAKFAST

Tuesday February 14, 2023 Valentine’s Day was a nice mild sunny day for the MSA breakfast. There was no rain or snow in the forecast. This was a very nice spring like morning, however the attendance was sparse. There were only 3 Masonic guests, 3-33° and 7 MSA for a total of 13. Since this was Valentine’s Day the group all signed a nice Valentine and presented to our waitress, Natasha.

Once again the service and food was excellent and our waitress Natasha who is becoming a fairly good photographer did an outstanding job in taking the group picture. We would like to see more Brothers at our next breakfast in March.

This is an open invitation to all Brethren to come and join the group for some good fellowship (1884-1983), then-Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, and ends, “If you decide to put this gavel in the Museum you can pick out the important points in the above for a small card.” This small piece of material culture made of wood more than one-hundred-twenty years old still has a big story to tell.

In memoriam

Our Father, Author and Finisher of our Faith, give us Thy blessing as we go about our daily tasks in our homes and in all other places of service. Bring us here together, eager to report what we have done and to receive with gladness other duties which may be ours to do. Give us grace to accomplish Thy will in every humble task or in greater work for Thee. And may the Spirt of Christ make us humble in our work, and faithful to each other. In His name, we pray, Amen
